Annotation: As the First President of independent Uzbekistan, I. A. Karimov, noted in his writings, he was firmly convinced that political independence could not be ensured without achieving economic independence. That is why, on the basis of the well-known five principles, he developed a program of cardinal reforms and structural transformations of the economy of Uzbekistan, which has received worldwide recognition as the "Uzbek model" of development. And the fundamental basis of this model was the practical implementation of the strategic priority - "Reforms are not for the sake of reforms, but in the name of man."

At the initiative of the First President, large-scale structural reforms were carried out in Uzbekistan, absolutely new high-tech industries were created, such as the petrochemical, chemical, automotive industries, agricultural and railway engineering, pharmaceutical, electrical engineering, textile industry, production of modern building materials. And the practical embodiment of the reforms implemented by the First President Islam Abduqanievich Karimov was the entry of Uzbekistan into the top five fastest growing economies in the world.

The first leader of the country raised to the level of state policy respect for the spiritual values of our people, the preservation and development of our sacred religion, traditions and customs, priceless historical heritage, laid the foundations for peaceful coexistence of our multinational and multi-confessional people, made a great contribution to increasing the authority of Uzbekistan in the international arena. In the article, the author tells about the First President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, as a true leader of the nation, who loved his beautiful Homeland above all and considered the protection of the rights, freedoms and interests of his people the main goal for himself, our people also loved and respected Islam Abduganievich infinitely, was rightfully proud of his outstanding leader.

Keywords: President, independence, nation, state.

The people of our country today associate huge achievements over the years of independence with the name of the First President of our state, Islam Abduganievich Karimov. He devoted his whole life to the realization of a noble task: to build a free and prosperous country. This task has found its response in the heart of every one of our compatriots. Islam Abduganievich is rightfully the author of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan, which fully meets democratic requirements and international criteria, a true guarantor of its practical implementation.

All the multifaceted activities of Islam Karimov have become a high example for present and future generations. He, as a true leader of the nation, loved his beautiful Homeland above all, and considered the main goal for himself to protect the rights, freedoms and interests of our people, who were proud of their outstanding leader. Islam Abduganievich Karimov was firmly convinced that political independence cannot be secured without achieving economic independence. That is why he developed, on the basis of the well-known five principles, a program of cardinal reforms and structural transformations of the economy of Uzbekistan, which has received worldwide recognition as the "Uzbek model" of development. The fundamental basis of this model was the practical implementation of the strategic priority – "Reforms are not for the sake of reforms, but in the name of man."

On his initiative, large-scale structural reforms have been carried out in Uzbekistan, absolutely new high-tech industries have been created, such as the petrochemical, chemical, automotive industries, agricultural and railway engineering, pharmaceutical, electrical engineering, textile industry, production of modern building materials. Such globally unique industrial facilities as Ustyurt and Shurtan gas chemical complexes, Bukhara oil Refinery, Kungrad Soda Plant, Dehkanabad potash fertilizer plant, automobile plants in Andijan, Samarkand, Tashkent and Khorezm regions have been built. A modern road transport and engineering and communication infrastructure has been created in the republic, including the Angren-Pap railway lines with a unique tunnel through the Kamchik mountain pass, Tashguzar-Baysun-Kumkurgan, high-speed railway communication on routes from Tashkent to Samarkand, Bukhara and Karshi has been opened, international airports have been modernized, an international logistics center has been established on the Navoi airport base and the Uzbek National Highway.

The practical embodiment of the reforms implemented by President Islam Abduganievich Karimov was the entry of Uzbekistan into the top five fastest growing economies in the world.

Islam Abduganievich Karimov is the organizer of profound transformations in agriculture, the formation of a new class of real land owners – the farmer movement. On his initiative, a program that has no analogues in world practice is being implemented to radically transform the appearance of the village, the construction of rural residential buildings that ensure the quality and standards of life of the rural population at a level not inferior to urban ones.

Islam Abduganievich Karimov, as the Supreme Commander-in-Chief, ensured a radical reform, an increase in the combat power and potential of the Armed Forces capable of reliably protecting the independence, territorial integrity of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the inviolability of its borders, and the peaceful and peaceful life of our people. He developed and implemented the Concept of the Foreign Policy of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the cornerstone of which is peacefulness based on non-interference in the internal affairs of other states and the resolution of emerging contradictions and conflicts only by peaceful, political means. The Head of our state has made a huge contribution to the preservation of peace and stability in the region and throughout the world.

Having completely abandoned old dogmas and stereotypes, at the initiative of Islam Abduganievich Karimov, a large-scale National training program was developed and practically implemented, a cardinal reform of the education system based on the most modern international standards.

Islam Abduganievich Karimov directly supervised the work on the creation and implementation of a fundamentally new system of education of the younger generation, which radically changed the thinking and outlook of our youth, which is becoming the decisive force of today and tomorrow of the country.

The head of the country raised to the level of state policy respect for the spiritual values of our people, the preservation and development of our sacred religion, traditions and customs, priceless historical heritage, made a great contribution to increasing the authority of Uzbekistan in the international arena.

Islam Abduganievich Karimov initiated the formation of civil society institutions, first of all, increasing the authority of the mahalla in state and public administration, expanding its rights and powers. Islam Abduganievich Karimov has left an indelible mark in the history of our Motherland with his multifaceted political activity and noble human qualities. And we, the younger generation of Samarkand residents, must do everything in our power to meet the high ideal of the successors of the great deeds of the founder of our independence.
